Cigars

H. Upmann Junior Tubos £6.90

These light to medium bodied cigars have a very smooth and subtle flavour that has been its hallmark since its introduction in 1844 Upmanns offer a smooth, subtle, mild to medium smoke These cigars are great for beginners, but appeal to the daytime tastes of seasoned connoisseurs Their larger sizes are among the most rare and sought-after cigars in the world

Romeo y Julieta – Romeo n°2 Tubos £11.40

Medium in strength and a characteristic Romeo y Julieta style Robust and complex flavours such as floral, nutty herbal or woody among others. The minimum recommended ageing for this cigar is at least three years

Cohiba Siglo I Tubos £14.20

Fairly rapid burning and loaded with flavours that will test the “cultural” diversity of your palate. Perfect for a daytime break, a lunch with friends or a moment of solitary reflection, will suit the fast moving aficionado looking for a quick moment of escape!

Monte Cristo Petit Edmundo Tubos £15.60

A strong and powerful cigar, one of the top 3 cigars from this manufacturer. This treasure offers a very strong tobacco taste with balanced flavours.

Partagas Serie P n°2 Tubos £20.70

Great spicy cigar that develops in power and rich aromas throughout the smoke. The evolution of flavours is very smooth, and the conical tip serves as a flavour enhancer. Beautiful fresh wood and crushed pepper and an underlying creaminess are present throughout in a balanced, well poised cigar.

Cohiba Siglo VI Tubos £36.00

Launched to commemorate 10 years of the Siglo range. This unusually big format cigar makes it possible to appreciate the aroma and taste of the Linea 1492 with complete intensity. A must try for any serious cigar aficionado.

bittersweet finish, active yeast in the bottle helps the beer to mature and give a draught-like complexity

ESB, Fuller's, London 5.5% abv 500ml £4.15
This famous malty bitter has won Champion Beer of Britain three times for its character and complexity of flavour. ESB stands for Extra Special Bitter

Oak-Aged Beer, Innis & Gunn, 330ml £4.15
Scotland 6.6% abv
Aged in brand new malt whisky barrels made from American oak. Intense aromas of fresh, grassy hops and a deep, almost briny note. The oak is noticeable as luscious hints of vanilla and caramel. The freshness of the hops cuts through this sweetness and the acidity is clean in the finish
